IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of Mrs. M. Vivian Garcia, wife of Dr. M. L. Garcia, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Thurmond. Our dear Vivian fell asleep in Jesus at the home of her parents on Jan. 6, 1905, in her 27th year and in the eighth year of her married life. Her happy married life had failed to lessen her love for the dear homefolks, and for weeks she had looked forward to making them happy by her presence during the holidays, and the gentle hands had kept so busy developing gifts that the loving heart prompted her to bring to loved ones, but in just two weeks after she left her home for her visit, the husband was called from his practice to attend the bedside of his beloved wife, and all that skill and love could suggest was done for the dear sufferer, but her frail nature could not withstand pneumonia, and as I write this little tribute of love the dear body is being laid to rest in the cemetery near her home, by the side of her one dear babe that blessed her union, and was given to her but a few months. May the heart-beating husband, all his people who loved her so well, her own dear parents, brothers and little sisters, remember her now as a glorified spirit, with her angelic child in the home which the dear Savior, who in early life she confessed, went to prepare for her, and all who love Him. And though we may miss her so sorely, may the sweet thoughts that all in well with her, as also that the Heavenly Father doth all things well, bring peace to the heart of the husband whose devotion has always been so beautiful, as all of us whose hearts have been so saddened by this bereavement.

ONE WHO LOVED HER.

PREACHERSVILLE.

W. B. Bennett bought of different farmers here a car-load of hogs at 40 and shipped them to Williamsburg. Misses Ada and Alpha Taylor entertained in honor of Miss Katie Payne Tuesday evening. A most enjoyable time was reported. Mrs. Jesse Taylor is very ill at the home of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. White Mr. and Mrs. James Rodgers are conversing Jack Kirby, who has been sick of grip, is some better. T. F. Gross is improving. J. T. Hinzman is complaining.

K. H. Sarason, the pioneer Jewish newspaper publisher in the United States, is dead in New York.

HUSTONVILLE.

Glen Mary Coal 12½ and canal coal 16½. Coal on hands at all times. W. S. Wigman, Morehead.

Some splendid farms for sale and a good house and lot in town for sale or rent. Come quick. W. R. Williams, Hustonville.

Rev. S. B. Lander, a Danville theologian, will preach at the Presbyterian church, Hustonville, Sunday morning next. After the service a business meeting will be held and a large attendance is desired.

Three new families have moved into our midst since the first of the year: Mrs. Bailey and daughter, from Danville; Sam Thurmond, of Bradfordville, to Mrs. Owens' little farm in the suburbs; and Mr. Tucker, of Walnut Flat, to the Adams place, in the edge of town.

Judge John C. Cooper, who died at Aschboro a few days ago, was born and grew to manhood on the old Cooper homestead, two miles south of town. Just before the civil war he read law in Stafoard and afterwards entered into partnership with Ross Wm. Chas. Smith, now dead. Mr. Cooper represented the county in the lower House of the Legislature two or three times and made a good record while acting in that capacity. From Stafoard he went to Shelbyville, where he remained several years, engaged in the practice of the law. Afterwards he moved to Louisville and was engaged for several years as attorney for several big building and loan associations. He was a gentleman from his birth up, always the same genial, cheerful, jolly John Cooper. Two sisters survive him, Mrs. John Ellis, of Stafoard, and Mrs. Susan Wright, of this place. His age was 72.—Hustonville cor. Danville Advocate.

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

A Mason county man who keeps tab on the weather, says the drought lasted 136 days.

The Maple Leaf grain elevator in Kansas owned by the Chicago Great Western Railway Company, was burned with 300,000 bushels of wheat, containing a loss of $500,000. The building and contents were fully insured. The fire was caused by sparks generated by a friction belt.

John L. Forsythe has sold his farm of 425 acres, on the Bohon pike, to Hiram Clemmons, of Fayette county, for $17,000. Mr. Clemmons now owns 1,000 acres of choice Mercer county land and owns about 2,500 acres of superb Fayette land, and it is said, has mortgages on a great many more.—Harrisburg Herald.

NEWS NOTES.

A motion for a new trial as to Alex. Hargis and B. F. French was filed at Winchester by Mrs. Arabella Marcus, the ground being that the exonerated was not according to the law and evidence. The defendants, James Hargis, and Ed Callahan, also filed grounds for a new trial, alleging that the court had erred in numerous instances.

In affirming judgment of the State Fiscal Court the Appellate Court holds that the State school fund is not entitled to any part of the license taxes paid into the Insurance Department by companies doing business in this State. Suit was filed some time ago by Superintendent of Schools Paqua to compel Auditor Hagro to pay to the school fund the sum of $120,000 claimed to be due from such license taxes.

Greatly in Demand.

Nothing is more demanded than a medicine which meets modern requirements for a blood and system cleanser, such as Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are just what you need to cure stomach and liver troubles. Try them. At Penny's Drug Store and Lysa Bros., Stafoard, Ky.

The seven wonders of the world are the Pyramids of Egypt, hanging gardens of Babylon, mausoleum at Halicarnassus, temple of Diana at Ephesus, colossus of Rhodes, Pharos at Alexandria, statue of Olympian Zeus at Elis. All of these "wonders" fell into ruins and disappeared centuries ago, with the exception of the Pyramids, which are in the Nile Valley, near Cairo, Egypt.

Spilled Her Beauty.

Harriet Howard, of 209 W. 34th street, New York, at one time had her beauty spoiled with skin trouble. She writes: "I had Salt Rheum or Eczema for years, but nothing would cure it, until I used Dr. King's America Salve." A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores. At Penny's Drug Store and Lysa Bros., Stafoard, Ky.

SOMERSET.

A protected meeting will begin at the Christian church Sunday.

C. H. Finch bought the lively stable property on Vernon avenue for $1,500.

Dr. B. G. Allen bought of Thos. M. Thatcher a lot facing Crab Orchard St. for $1,375.

There were about four inches of snow on the ground the first of the week and sleighs were very much in evidence.

The council at its last meeting passed a resolution authorizing the city clerk to advertise a sale of the street car franchise. We will soon have a car line. Watch us!

Beecher Smith bought a lot 20x164 on Vernon avenue from the colored Mamie lodge. Price private. John Merhosh bought of Neet Ashurst his residence on Vernon avenue for $1,400.

At a meeting of the K. O. T. M. lodge No. 13 Friday night the following officers were installed for the ensuing year: J. A. Coleman, Commander; J. T. Cook, Record Keeper; Dr. J. B. Wier, Chaplain; Geo. Sifton, Sergeant; Will Shepherd, Earl Britton, Clarence Smith, Guards; D. Shaw, Master at Arms. State Grand Master M. F. Elkin was present and officiated as installing officer. Several speeches were made, which added greatly to the pleasure of the occasion. After the ceremonies all retired to an adjoining room where a banquet was served to the Knights and their wives. It was an enjoyable occasion.

Miss Maude Gorday returned home Saturday. The family of M. C. Williams arrived Monday and are occupying the cottage vacated by Lee Hall on Crab Orchard street. Mr. Lee Hall and family left Monday for Florida to spend the winter. Mr. Robert Jenko, of Louisville, who is in the Grange, will go to California on a vacation trip. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dixon left Saturday for Independence, Kas., where they will make their future home. Their many friends here gave them up with much regret. Mr. Bowman Cline, of Lincoln county, was here the first of the week. Dr. B. G. Allen has moved into his new office in the Bank building. W. R. Powell and G. T. Gristeadt, of Richmond, were here on business this week. Mr. Frank Ford has returned from Columbia and Campbellsville. Dr. W. C. West left Thursday to enter the Hospital College of Medicine at Louisville.

Boil It Down.

The following story is going the rounds of the press, and is published as a sort of apology by the editors for their treatment of not a few of the contributions offered them, and especially for their treatment of what are regarded as news items:

"He was just from college and had a piece of news of a sensational staff of morning newspaper. His first assignment was on the West Side to report a fire. He wrote it up in grand style, making a half column article of it, beginning thus:

"Suddenly on the still night air the shock of fire, and simultaneously the devouring tongue of flame, whose light played along the roof's edge, had caught the eagle eye of the midnight watcher, leaped forth, no longer playful, but fierce and angry in its consuming greed. Like glowing, snaky demons, the lurid lights entwined the building; in venomous hisses and bright spurts the flames shot into the overhanging darkness, while from every window and door poured forth a dense, sulphurous vapor, the deadly, suffocating breath of an imprisoned, seared, etc."

"Next morning the embryo journalist was up early to see how his brilliant effort looked in print and this is what he read:

"The growth of the Order of Macedonia since 1881 and particularly within the past two or three years is without precedent in the history of fraternal institutions. From a membership of 700 in 1881 the numerical strength is over the half million mark. In Kentucky there are 6,000 members and 2,000 women in the auxiliary. Recently the rates of insurance have been wisely raised to conform to laws of safety and to secure the order against the inevitable risk of increasing rates upon the survivors who pass the ordinary life expectancy."

Fire at Chelsea, Mass., destroyed property worth $200,000 and several persons were injured. The Academy of Music block was ruined and the Hotel Savoy badly damaged.

Five killings took place in Monroe county, Ala., within 48 hours, two at a dance following a wedding, two over a card game and the fifth victim was killed from a mauling.

Decided to Stay.

We are not going to leave Stanford; in fact we never thought of leaving and don't intend to as long as we can make a living here. We know of no people we would rather live among than those who have made our store and business what it is; and, if we should be fortunate enough to make more than a living, we will stay in STANFORD and spend it with our friends, who have helped us to make it. As we expect to live among you we must at all times treat you as friends and customers and look to your interest in the future as we have in the past.

New Goods.

Ginghams, White Goods, Linens, Embroideries, Laces, Buttons, Thread, Cottons, Cambrics, Nainsooks. Everything for your White Sewing.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - JAN. 13, 1905

We earnestly solicit your prescription trade for the reason that we give this department our special attention and can promise you thorough and accurate work. Our Prescription Department is now more complete than ever before, and this with the fact of our steady increase in business is enough to convince you of the superior quality of our service. P. S. Drug Store, Stanford, Ky.

PERSONALS.

MISS LINA KENNEDY is with Corbin friends.

MISS LARRY PHILLIPS is very ill with pneumonia.

MISS MARY D. KENNEDY is visiting relatives at Corbin.

MISS H. D. GREGORY and baby, of Covington, are here.

The aged Mr. Harvey Flood, of the Westburg section, is very ill.

MISS MARTHA HUBBARD, of Richmond, is the guest of Mrs. James Messer.

MRS. LUC BRIGHT DEACON, of Paducah, is visiting relatives in Danville.

WINFREY BARNETT arrived from North Dakota yesterday to attend the burial of his father.

MISS HELEN HOFFMAN and Miss Melbie Hopper, of Hustonville, are at Judge J. P. Bailey's.

MISS CLEO BROWN, of Mt. Vernon, was on Wednesday's train returning from a visit to her son at Lexington, Va.

MISS JESSIE D. COOPER, of Nashville, came up to attend the burial of her cousin, Mrs. J. L. Conway, at Hustonville.

HON. J. M. ALVENSER left for Frankfort Wednesday to be on hand at rail call of the extra session which began yesterday.

MR. PELAND THURMOND, who is now making his headquarters at Williamsport, was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Thurmond.

MR. ARCH K. WALKER and family passed through from Garrard yesterday en route to Rolling Ford, Miss., which place they will make their future home.

IRVING NEWLAND, of Stanford, has accepted a position with Mr. B. G. Fox, the livestockman, to succeed John Bright, who resigned several days ago to accept a similar position in the city, says the Danville Advocate. "At" is a good boy and we hope our Danville friends will treat him well.

MISS LENA PEYTON, of Stanford, arrived here yesterday for a visit to her sister, Mrs. John Shild and other relatives. Mr. Frank Bobbitt, of Stanford, who has been spending a week with relatives and friends here, left yesterday for his home—Lexington Herald.

MRS. JAMES P. BAILEY, one of the very best women who ever lived in this county, is at the point of death and the chances are that she will not live thro' the day. Her loss will be deeply felt, for at home, in her church and elsewhere, she was the good, true, Godly woman, loved and admired by all with whom she came in contact.

LOCALS.

DON'T fail to see Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde to-night.

Two second-hand job presses for sale. Write this office for particulars.

SEPT. SINGLETON tells us that the January drive will be ready for the school teachers to-morrow.

MR. MATT WOODSON will, in the next few days, open an up-to-date gente' furnishing store in Middleboro.

MRS. W. E. VARNON asks us to state that she has sold her piano and will sell the other items advertised privately, instead of at public auction to-morrow.

REWARD—Please return our Fence Straddle at once and receive reward. George H. Farris & Co.

FOR SALE—A clean, fresh stock of Dry Goods and a nice residence in Stanford, Ky. John P. Jones.

A LITTLE daughter of M. K. Hom phry, the Liberte druggist, died yesterday of stomach trouble.

POULTRY WANTED—Will pay 10c for good turkey and chicken. H. B. Northcutt, Stanford, Ky.

TWO nice rooms over Higgins' store for rent cheap. Suitable for offices or living rooms. W. H. Higgins.

WANTED—Good reliable boy, 15 to 20 years old, to light stoves on small farm. Address at once H. K. W. Danville, Ky.

SALESMEN WANTED—To look after our interest in Lincoln and adjacent counties. Salary or commission. Address The Harvey Oil Co., Cleveland, Ohio.

CLAIR CAMPBELL has come home from the far West to assist his father on the Somerset Farm. We hope and believe he will prove both a help and a comfort to the splendid old gentleman.

CAMPBELL—Mr. S. G. Campbell, one of the good citizens of the Turcorville section, died and was buried Tuesday at the burying ground bearing his name. He was about 60 years old and was never married.

AT J. A. Tucker's sale near Maywood Wednesday cows brought $2.65 to $2.70 in crib, hogs $50 to $85, cows $25, yearlings $10. A good crowd was present. Mr. Tucker and wife will move to Lexington to reside.

The Central Kentucky Medical Association will meet in Danville, Thursday, 19th, at 10:30 A. M. Dr. Carpenter, of this place, will open the discussion on "Early Diagnosis of Hernia: Minimum of Tax: Early Operation." Dr. Kinsaid, of Lancaster, will make a report of Section in Gynecology.

DR. W. N. CRAIG has received from a Pennsylvania physician a new breed of ferret, with which he proposes to exterminate all the rats in around his home and drug store. It is said that the ferret is more destructive than the famous poison, "roguis on rats," and the rodents that are not killed by the little white animal will seek other localities whenever its quarters are invaded.

BARNETT—Mr. G. Brent Barnett, who had been ill for some months, died at his home near Hustonville yesterday morning, aged about 60. Mr. Barnett was one of Lincoln county's substantial citizens, a clever man and an upright and honorable one, and the announcement of his death will cause sorrow wherever he is known. He is survived by two sons, Arthur and Winfrey Barnett, by his first wife, who was a Miss Moore, and a wife, who was Miss Cochran, and several small children. He will be missed by them all, but especially will his loss be felt by the wife and little children, to whom he was devoted, and great sympathy is felt for them. The burial occurred in Buffalo Cemetery this morning, in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing friends.

AN immense crowd attended the burial of Mrs. Helen Reid Conway, the excellent wife of Mr. Joseph L. Conway, at Hustonville yesterday afternoon and beautiful flowers brought by loving friends hid from view the little mound that marks the last resting place of the devoted wife and Godly mother. The occasion was an exceedingly sad one and there was scarcely a dry eye in the great throng when the body was deposited in mother earth. Her funeral was presided by her pastor at Wichita, Kansas, and on the arrival of the remains at Hustonville they were taken to the Christian church, where short services were conducted by Rev. G. W. Mills. This was followed by a prayer and song at the grave, after which the sorrowing friends returned to their homes, distressed at the loss of so excellent a woman, but thankful to Him Who rules above for her beautiful life and for the splendid influence which she wielded. Truly a good woman has gone to a rich reward. May those who weep for her soon realize that she is better off and that her sweet spirit is with the God Who gave it.

DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE at Walton's Opera House to-night.

One tract consists of 25 acres, the other five acres. The owner of this property lives at a distance and we are instructed to sell it privately. It must go. The best bid gets it. For further particulars see or address L. R. Hughes, Stanford, Ky.

LANCASTER—The veteran type, Mexican veteran and malintay in the Red and Blue, Captain Francis Jackson White, who has been confined to his room for several weeks by illness, is much improved. News has been received of the death of Mrs. Theresa Gill George Williams, which occurred at St. Joe, Mo. She was born in Lancaster. W. L. Lawson, who has made one of the best sheriffs this county ever had, has settled the State taxes for 1904, amounting to $21,230. C. A. Arnold, his efficient deputy, has aided materially in the good work in this department for the present term. H. D. Aldridge has located in Stanford, where he expects to make his future home. He is a free, all round man, a good workman and a splendid citizen—Central Record.

As a fitting climax to the week of prayer, there was a mass meeting Friday night at the Presbyterian church with Mr. P. M. McRoberts as chairman. Good and aggressive talks were made by representative laymen of the different churches. Attention was called to the reported open violation of law, and the apathy of our citizens in regard to it, and a strong and more determined stand in the matter was urged. A committee was appointed to give a practical turn to the protest, and to see that steps were taken to remedy such evils as Sunday violations, gambling, illegal liquor selling, etc. This committee, consisting of one member from each of the churches, and the pastors of the town, met Tuesday morning in Mr. Hays' room, and after a general discussion, a sub-committee was appointed to appear before the city council and present appropriate resolutions. The opinion was expressed that many of our citizens are ignorant of the fact that "tramping" is a flagrant violation of the law and one of the worst forms of gambling. A permanent organization was effected and proper and practical steps will be taken for the enforcement of the law against such evils as are detrimental to the moral interests of the town. It is hoped by the committee, however, that it will not be necessary to do more than call attention to these facts.

MATRIMONIAL.

Twenty-six female operators in the Paducah telephone exchange have found husbands in less than a year.

R. C. Abraham and Miss Lela Smith, popular young people of the East End, drove to Stanford Wednesday and were married at the residence of Rev. O. M. Husey by that gentleman. A London dispatch says: Perhaps the most unsexily matched couple as yet seen in this country was married at Farristown. A G. Frost, a 17-year-old boy of Brock, was married to Miss Rebecca Goins, also of this county, who had reached the age of 60.

Mr. James Webb Bratton, aged 25, son of Mrs. John L. Bailey, of this city, and Miss Stella Stuart Montague, both of Bourbon county, were married at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. William Carpenter, of Lexington, on the evening of the 6th. The bridal party was exceeding the honeymoon in New Orleans.

Miss Susan McRoberts, of Danville, and Mr. Lewis Neal, of Richmond, were married Thursday evening. The wedding was a quiet but elegant affair, and the couple left at once on their bridal trip to California and will not return to Louisville until April. The bride is one of Danville's loveliest daughters and Mr. Neal is to be congratulated upon winning her hand. Her host of friends will regret very much to learn that they will miss Richmond their home instead of Danville—News.

John Brasser, aged 75, and Mrs. Minerva Littlefield, 69, were married in Mercer. "My son, don't you know that your wild career is a disgrace to your father?"

"Don't you worry. I don't let anybody know you're my father!"

Fire destroyed the National Machine Works at Chicago, entailing a loss of $70,000.

Owing to the busy season in our Jewelry Store I will have to discontinue my visits to Stanford until Spring.

Headaches, granulated lids, pins in and around the eyes, nervousness, etc., are often the result of eye strains. We straighten crossed eyes without the knife, scissors or pain. We use no medicine in examination or treatment of the eyes, nor do we perform any surgical operation.

Results Count—Dr. Murray fitted glasses for me that have given most perfect satisfaction, more than any I ever had. The glasses fitted for my aunt, Mrs. Daddar, of McKinney, are also perfectly satisfactory.

Luanna Gentry, Stanford, Ky.

The glasses you fitted for me two years ago have given me better satisfaction than any I ever had on my eyes. J. W. Root, Stanford, Ky.

Thanking the people for their liberal patronage,

Dr. E. H. Murray,
Ophthalmologist.

Odd Features Of An Italian Wedding.

In one of the popular churches on Baxter Street, in the center of the downtown Italian colony, the marriage ceremony reached the startling proportion of from 20 to 30 a day, and more on Sundays, during the early Spring months.
The summer is comparatively marriages, but during the last of October and the months following until the new year the record reaches its ninth again.

The Italian believes in love, and he also believes in early marriages. Many of the girls put on the veil and orange blossoms when only 15 years old. With the Italian, marriage is a duty. There is an old saying that an unmarried man is no man. Single women are absolutely unknown. Even with the progressive Italian, born on American soil, a bachelor, with his hereditary independence, would be a monstrosity. Some years ago Italian in this country used to send to Italy for their wives. Nowadays they are marrying more and more the American Italian girls of the colony, although the custom of importing the bride still prevails to some extent.

"Love and live," is the motto of the Latter quarter. Those who have followed its decrees have won away an earth and the months following until the custom of importing the bride still
prevails to some extent.

KINGSVILLE.

Manfred Chevolette is indisposed.
Mack Williams has just died.
Dr. C. B. Powell of Lexington, will send as a preacher for the third Sunday, probably Mr. Burd, of the Bible College, who will preach a trial sermon, or as Mr. Powell put it, "give us a sample."

Mr. Bob Adams, the popular traveling salesman, was born a few days ago.
Mrs. Ella Reynolds and baby spent a few days at Ludlow. Mrs. Cynthia Coons, of Eabanks, spent several days with relatives here. Mrs. C. L. Henley, who has been in delicate health for some time, was able to be out a few days since, to the delight of her many friends.

how deep it is, etc.

Episode In a Novel.

Maiden seated in the train,
Pocket full of money;
Down beside her sat a man—
Maiden thinks it funny.

Quickly speeds the train along,
Maiden's thoughts most anxiously
On her pocket centers

Quietly her little hand,
Toward the money stealing.
Finds a hand already there,
Robbery revealing.

Fiercely clutches she the band,
As hysterics verging.
Waiting till the train shall be
From the dark emerging.

Into the sunlight goes at last Maiden clutching a pocket.
Maiden finds her hand
In the stranger's pocket.

A Grim Tragedy

It is daily enacted in thousands of homes
Death claims, in cold, unfeeling
In the Consumption or Pneumonia. But when Coughs and Colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. R.
Huntley, of Oaklawn, Ind., writes:
"My wife had consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr.
King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which cured her, and to-day she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guaranteed at 50c and $1.00. By F. R. Huntley, Druggist and Lye Bros., Oaklawn, Ind.

The residence of Bert Oog, of Charleston, W. Va., was destroyed by fire, his three children and daughter were burned to death and he was fatally burned in an attempt at rescue.
